WORK DONE BY THE IROQUOIS

HILO, Nov. 8.—The U. S. S. Iroquois, which arrived Friday afternoon in command of Capt. A. P. Niblack, is making a tour of inspection of the Federal lighthouses and government buoys. At Kawaihae Capt. Niblack examined the lighthouse at that point and will inspect the construction of the new lighthouse now being built on Maui, where the Kinai light formerly stood. At Makena a relocation of the buoy will be made and about January 1st the Blond reef buoy designating the entrance to Hilo harbor will be replaced by a regulation government marking buoy.

During her stay in port the marines off the vessel, under the name of the Malle Illmas, played two games of baseball with a picked Hilo nine, wrestling the home team on both occasions. Before her arrival at Hilo, the Iroquois proceeded to Kealahou Bay and the jacks put Captain Cook's monument in a more presentable shape. As to the prospects for the early construction of lighthouses in the Territory and especially along the Hamakua coast, Capt. Niblack was unable to give any information. This is a matter of governmental action at Washington.—Tribune.

"LAYSAN KING" BUYS SCHOONER

PORT TOWNSEND, Oct. 18.—Captain Max Schlemmer, of Laysan Island, has purchased the schooner C. Kennedy, now lying at Seattle, and will bring the vessel here to make some minor repairs, after which he will load her with cord-wood and sail for Honolulu, from which port she will trade to Lisiansky and Laysan Islands, carrying guano to the island metropolis.

Capt. Max Schlemmer is reported to be on the way here from Port Townsend. The master of the vessel is said to be a former mate of the Robert Lewers.

Mauna Loa Arrives.

The Mauna Loa arrived yesterday from Kona and Kau ports with a fair passenger list and a large amount of freight which consisted of 4898 bags sugar, 33 head cattle, 762 bags coffee, 36 bags awa, 19 hogs, 32 pigs, hides, 6 cts. chickens, 7 bags cabbages, 8 bags coconuts, 25 kegs and 3 tins butter, 18 cts. fruit, 21 cts. fish, 150 bags taro, 125 bunches bananas, 25 bags beans, 22 bags ginger and 175 pkgs. sundries.
Purser Conkling reports that the Porto Ricans who left Honolulu after the murder of Ed. Damon and went to Kona to work on the roads there, are a terror to the community. Robberies have been almost constant in Kona since they went there and now they are waylaying people and robbing them. Last week a couple of Hawaiians were stabbed on the road from Kailua to Kailua because they refused to give up their money. Things have come to such a pass that everybody goes about armed at night.

Shipping Notes.

The W. B. Flint left Makawell for San Francisco Nov. 9th.
The bark Amy Turner, Wariano, cleared from Hilo for San Francisco on Nov. 2nd.

The Maui arrived yesterday morning from the Hamakua coast with 50 cattle for the Metropolitan Meat Co.
The Sonoma is due Tuesday morning from the Colonies and the Doric will arrive that evening from San Francisco.

Several sailing vessels are due. The Coronado is out 15 days from San Francisco and the Mary E. Foster is out 20 days from Port Gamble.

The Andrew Welch received the last of her sugar yesterday. She departs at noon for San Francisco with several passengers and 1000 tons of sugar.

The bark Kailani is overdue from San Francisco. She has been out twenty days now. Besides a large general cargo, she brings several passengers and 284 hogs.
